WEST END

West End is not for the meek. It is for those who embrace their individuality, people with an eclectic appetite for life. At the cusp of the city and West Melbourne's unique charm, West End delivers resort-style living. It is a destination like no other, imagined by a collaboration of Australia's best designers.

On the doorstep of the world's most liveable city, West Melbourne is on the edge of the Melbourne CBD, just north of Docklands and alongside Queen Victoria Market. With rapid urban renewal and close proximity to everything you love about Melbourne, there is a sense of community in this inconspicuous suburb.

The serenity of Flagstaff Gardens is a short stroll from West End. Established in 1862, it is the oldest park in Melbourne and one of the most visited in the city. Spanning over 18 acres bounded by William, La Trobe, King and Dudley Streets, it is notable for its signif
